TORONTO PAPER, THE EVENING TELEGRAM, OFFERED FOR SALE—Sale of Telegram is subject to reserve bid fixed by trustees D. S. Robertson, A. T. Chabwick, C. O. Knowles, C. H. J. Butler and C. T. McTague. Newspaper, shown here, has been operated by a trustee board since the death of the founder, John Ross Robertson.—S.N.S. photo.

OPENS PARLIAMENT WITH FULL CEREMONY—For the first time in ten years, the King wore his crown and red velvet parliamentary robes, and full ceremonial was observed when he opened parliament recently. The event required much of its former pomp and splendor. Making the event unique in its history was the presence of representatives of all the legislatures of the commonwealth. In the above photo, the King and Queen, the latter smiling happily, are seen leaving after the ceremony.—S.N.S. photo.

QUIT SHIP TO WED GIRL, SEAMAN MAY STAY—The government has decided to allow Kenneth David Darling, British merchant seaman, to enter Canada to marry his Edmonton sweetheart; it has been announced from Ottawa. Darling previously had been barred from making his home in Canada, because he suffered from tuberculosis. He deserted his ship at New York to get into Canada to marry Eileen Newbath, 20, a British immigrant girl now living in Edmonton. He has been held by immigration officials at Emerson, Man. Ken and Eileen are pictured above.—S.N.S. photo.

BEST FRIEND KILLS BOY, 15, IN ACCIDENT—Target practice too tame, Bernard Doumoulis, 17, and Ronald Delancy, 15, St. Catharines, Ont., took cover and fired 22s in "sham battle". Doumoulis slipped, finger tripped trigger and Ronald was shot in head. He died on way to hospital. Three Bernard says Mr. Doumoulis, Officers Muldoon and Widdowson where "game" had tragic ending. Bernard, shown top right, says they got up to end game when his gun went off. Ronald Delancy, bottom right, who was rushed to hospital but was dead before arrival.—S.N.S. photo.

JUMPED BAIL, NOW IN JAIL—Daine Foster who jumped $10,000 bail in Hamilton, Ont., April 9, and was finally located in Cincinnati, Ohio, with James Leckard, also a $10,000 bail-jumper, is back in Hamilton after being turned over to the R.C.M.P. by U.S. authorities. Leckard was shot in the Cincinnati raid.—S.N.S. photo.

RETIRED MINISTER INHERITS $40,000 FORTUNE—Left a $40,000 fortune and a 25-room mansion in England by the will of a spinster sister, 80-year-old William Kendall, (left), retired Methodist minister, who lives on the border of the Gibson Indian reservation near Hala, Ont., says he will not go to England to claim the money on the property. He says he wants to spend his remaining years among his Indian relatives and friends. Sister, wife of minister, Mrs. William Kendall, (right), died two years ago. Mr. Kendall's inheritance was made known recently on probate of the will of the late Hilda Kendall, who died at Pickering, York, Eng., last March.—S.N.S. photo.

FACTORY WORKER LUCKY SWEEPSTAKE WINNER—Among the lucky Canadians who held lucky sweepstake tickets was Mr. Albert Robins, Toronto's 52½-week factory laborer. The ticket is worth approximately $40,000, if he can get the money out of Eire. Mr. and Mrs. Robins are pictured above.—S.N.S. photo.

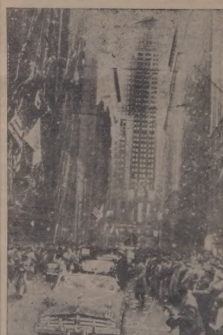

BOB WIG AT PARLIAMENT OPENING AT LONDON—Bob Wig, one of them wearing his navy high middle of state, have the parliament buildings in London, after the colorful opening session during which the King wore his crown and parliamentary robes for the first time in ten years. Representatives from parts of the empire are also shown leaving the round hall.—S.N.S. photo.

FIVE YOUTHS ORDERED LASHED FOR WOUNDING DRUGGIST—Lashes were ordered in the sentence five Toronto and district youths convicted on charges arising out of the wounding of Dr. A. Allan, druggist, of Brant, Ont., shown here are J. Besock, seven years, 20 strokes; F. Jackson, 10 years, 20 strokes; B. Smith, five years, 20 strokes. Two more shown here are Joseph Green and Edward D. McLean, both of whom got two years and 10 lashes. The magistrate in Toronto court told them maximum penalty was life.—S.N.S. photo.

A TYPICAL SCENE before and after the recent United States presidential election is a view of Chicago's busy La Salle street. The streets were jammed with people and from office building windows overhead scenes of conflict, ticker tape and paper fell upon processions of different candidates.—S.N.S. photo.

UP AFTER TWELVE WHEELCHAIR YEARS—Lionel Barrymore, who spent the past 12 years in a wheelchair, can walk again. And ever since the story got out, he provided his haven had a moment's peace. "Phone calls infernal, telegrams," he complained. "I don't want to know how he did it or how he got back on his feet." "Doctor's orders" says Barrymore. "I just went on a diet. Lost 15 pounds. Got back on my feet." Above, Barrymore is pictured with Louis B. Mayer and Myrna Loy. Contrary to common belief, Barrymore was not suffering from arthritis, but his paralysis was the result of an accident.—S.N.S. photo.

It may be objected that the balance of power theory, which has lingered on into the early 20th century, had little effect in preventing the war of 1914-1918. Too true. But humanity had little hope of maintaining peace when confronted by a bragging boasting of his country's "bright sword and shining armour." A somewhat similar situation exists in the world at present, in which a small dictatorship of fanatics has taken upon itself the views upon world peace by every means short of open warfare. The Atlantic Defence Force may be effective in preventing this last resort of every dictator known to history. Conversely, it may fail. It may be that man is doomed to encompass his own destruction.
